Beer preference

Currently a tossup between Black Butte Porter(Deschutes Brewery) and The Lucky Labrador Brew Pub's Cask Conditioned Bitter But I really like cider (west country if I can get it: domestic Woodchuck or 7 Sisters) or Glenmorange's port cask conditioned single malt

Anything else that needs to be said

I'm getting old and creaky enough that I'm wondering when the joints will just give out and I'll have to hang up my bells. Portland has a hall with a recently renovated “floating” dance floor – one of the few left in the country. I say we crash the joint and dance there!
