Traditions

Border: Mostly dances devised by Terry Dix and interpreted by The Witchmen

Beer preference

Draught beer, preferably not pasteurised, filtered, chilled, or pumped up with CO2. one of the joys of folk festivals is the chance to try local brews. Some of the so called 'craft' breweries are ok, a can of Brewdog Punk IPA is not at all bad.

Anything else that needs to be said

I occasionally play bodhran at Irish sessions. My wife Ruth Price <<http://ruthprice.com>> plays English concertina in The Witchmen's band she also sings mainly traditional songs: alone; with her sister, as Ruth and Sadie Price; in the 3 part harmony group hex <<http://www.hexonline.org>>; and as a member of She Shanties <<http://www.sheshanties.com>> a 12 member women's shanty crew.
